Location of Miscellaneous Army Barracks

25X1

11. The barracks in Turnovo are old and were used by the former 18 Infantry Regiment. They are located on the south side of town, and are bordered by the Yantra River and the Gorna Oryakhovitsa - Stara Zagora railroad on one side, and by the two roads leading from Turnovo to Elena on two sides. The barracks are surrounded by a cement wall two meters high on the two sides facing the road, and by wire on the side facing the river. The barracks area has two entrances: one where the two roads from Elena cross, and one on the road from Elena which passes through "Gorniya Boaz" (a pass southeast of Turnovo).
12. This barracks area contains five 2-story buildings, as follows:
- a. Two, which are barracks for the former 18 Infantry Regiment;
  - b. Two, which are used for the Infantry School; and
  - c. One, which is used as barracks for men of the 18 Military District headquarters.
- Also located in the barracks area are a guard house, kitchen, weapons repair shop, and various workshops. This barracks area can house over 2,000 soldiers.
13. The barracks in Silistra, which formerly houses the 31 Infantry Regiment, are located on the south side of town. The barracks area is bordered on the north and west sides by a hedge, and part of the east side is bordered by a wire fence. The following buildings are located in this barracks area:
- a. Ten 1-story buildings, each 12 x 10 meters in size, which are old Rumanian barracks;
  - b. Two 3-story buildings, each about 150 meters long and 40-50 meters wide.
- Approximately 3,000 or 4,000 troops can be housed in these barracks.
14. The former artillery barracks in Silistra are separated from the town infantry barracks by the Silistra-Bruchma (N 44-01, E 27-20) road. The north and east sides of the barracks are bordered by a hedge. In the barracks area there are a 2-story barracks building approximately 100 meters long and 40-50 meters wide, stables, and a training area. Approximately 200 soldiers can be accommodated in these barracks.
15. The former barracks of 13 Infantry Regiment in Kyustendil are located on the southern edge of town on the road to Gyueshevo (N 42-14, E 22-28). The north and east sides of the barracks area are bordered by a stone fence, and the west and south sides are bordered by a wire fence. The barracks area contains a 2-story building and two 1-story building, all about 50 x 10 meters in size.
16. New barracks are under construction at a location two kilometers southeast of Gorna Oryakhovitsa Station and 50 meters southwest of the Gorna Oryakhovitsa - Zlataritsa rail line. (Zlataritsa is the terminal of a spur line from Gorna Oryakhovitsa which began operating in 1947.) In October 1952, two squares of 2-story barracks, each 100 meters long, 80 meters wide, and 20 meters high had been completed, and four or five other barracks were still under construction. Soldiers of the 4 Antiaircraft Regiment will be quartered in the new barracks. In October, the soldiers were quartered in a school located opposite the new barracks area.
